

Genice DeCorte, incumbent

Genice DeCorte is the chief executive officer of HealthShare Credit Union in Greensboro, N.C. She has served in this capacity since 2005. Prior to her current role, Ms. DeCorte was the chief executive officer of Lee County Postal Employees Credit Union and assistant credit manager at Fairwinds Credit Union. Ms. DeCorte has been a member of Vizo Financial's board of directors since 2019.

Professionally, Ms. DeCorte currently serves as the treasurer for the Carolinas Credit Union Foundation and the chairperson of the Small Credit Union Roundtable. She has also been a part of the North Piedmont Chapter of Credit Unions, as well as the director for the Carolinas Credit Union Services.

She also holds community volunteer positions with the Lenox Park Homeowners Association and St. Pius X Catholic Church.

Ms. DeCorte earned her Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, majoring in finance, from the University of Central Florida, and completed the Finance Consumer Lending Management School Volunteer Achievement program. She also has certifications in credit union accounting and risk management and insurance.

With decades of experience in the credit union movement, Ms. DeCorte believes she can continue serving the Vizo Financial board well by drawing upon her extensive experience and connections with small credit unions. She believes her work with the Small Credit Union Roundtable and her experience as chief executive officer of HealthShare Credit Union provides her with the unique ability to be a voice for small credit unions when addressing the products and services that Vizo Financial offers.
