Elba Arenas

INCUMBENT

Elba Arenas is the president/CEO of MC Federal Credit Union in Danville, Pa., a title she has held since 2024. Prior to her current role, Ms. Arenas served in various positions as president/chief member experience officer, chief member experience officer and regional manager since she started with the credit union in 2016.

In addition to her roles within MC Federal Credit Union, she currently sits as an interim member on Vizo Financial's board of directors and was part of the Corporate's supervisory committee from 2023-2025. Her board experience also extends to the Getting Ahead Foundation, where she served as a board member from 2018-2025 and board chair from 2025-2026. She's a standing member of the Global Women's Leadership Network and Christian Woman's organization, and also volunteers as a financial literacy bilingual teacher.

Ms. Arenas holds an associate degree from LaGuardia Community College, Queens, N.Y. She's also a graduate of the CUES CEO Institute as of 2023 and has completed several courses on strategic planning, organizational effectiveness and strategic leadership development through the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business, Cornell University and the University of Virginia's Darden School of Business, respectively.

Ms. Arenas believes her culmination of experience as a credit union leader, bilingual coach, past supervisory committee member and current board member make her uniquely qualified to continue serving the board with a decisive yet collaborative nature, an understanding of governance and oversight and a dedication to sharing diverse perspectives. If re-elected, she will strive to create an environment where trust, accountability and shared purpose guide decision-making that benefits credit unions.
