Vizo Financial Puts Community First During 2023 Day of Service

Greensboro, N.C. (October 11, 2023) – Vizo Financial Corporate Credit Union put community first as it held its annual Day of Service on October 9, 2023. Every year on the Day of Service, the Corporate’s employees volunteer their time and efforts at various charities and organizations throughout Central Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Pa., Greensboro, N.C., and Columbia, S.C.

A total of 117 Vizo Financial staff members, along with family members and friends, participated in this special community-driven volunteer day. The time was spent assisting in a thrift store, sorting food and various donated items, packaging meal kits, writing thank you notes, assembling craft kits for children, making blankets, putting together goody bags, cleaning outdoor spaces, helping with event preparations and more in service to the following organizations:

- American Cancer Society
- Backpack Beginnings
- Caitlin’s Smiles
- Children’s Miracle Network Hospitals
- Cocoa Packs
- Harvest Hope Food Bank
- Hospice of Central Pennsylvania
- Love the Hill
- Midwest Food Bank
- Oliver Gospel Mission
- Penn Cumberland Garden Club
- Second Harvest Food Bank

“We began our annual Day of Service in 2019 to provide our credit union with an opportunity to give back to our communities and be truly hands-on in our mission of people helping people,” said David Brehmer, Vizo Financial’s president and CEO. “Year after year, no matter which organizations we work with or what our volunteer efforts look like, the experience never disappoints and always proves to us just how rooted our movement is in the everyday lives of the people we serve.”

“After a few years of pandemic restrictions, we were finally able to welcome family members and friends back to our Day of Service event, which really contributed to the overall feeling of joining together for the greater good,” said Erin Doan, diversity, equity and inclusion director for Vizo Financial. “With extra hands on deck this year, we were able to share more of the love and bring a greater sense of concern for community to some extraordinary charities and organizations.”
